Art der Prüfung	M1 - Public Law (i) A final written examination on the entire programme or (ii) For attending students: 1. written mid-term on lessons 1-6 which will weigh 33% on the final grade;

	2. written final examination on the remaining lessons 7-18 which will weigh 67%; 3. active participation in the tutorials. M2 - Private Law (i) Final written examination: The examination grade is based on the final written examination consisting of 4 open questions with 3-4 sub-questions. (ii) At the request of students, a midterm exam on a first part of the course programme will be organised. The result of the midterm exam will be worth 20% of the total exam grade. Students who pass the midterm exam will take a final exam consisting of 3 questions with 3-4 sub-questions on the remaining part of the syllabus. The final exam grade will be worth 80% of the total.
Bewertungskriterien	In order to pass the examination, both modules (M1 and M2) must be passed. A final mark will be awarded based on the mathematical average of the final marks achieved for the two individual modules (M1 and M2). It is also possible to pass the two modules in two different examination sessions as long as they are in the same academic year. Afterwards (in the following academic year), the passing of a single module will no longer have any value. M1 - Public Law (i) Final written examination consisting of 15 multiple-choice questions and 3 open-ended questions (to be chosen out of 4). (ii) Alternatively for attending students: 1. written mid-term which will weigh 33% of the final grade (30 multiple choice/closed answer questions) on the first 6 lectures of the syllabus. 2. final written exam which will weigh 67% on the final grade (6 multiple choice questions and 2 open-ended questions to be chosen out of 3) on the remaining lessons 7-18 of the programme. 3. active participation in the exercises, with presentation of a judgment or short report (up to 2 points). For the assessment of the open-ended questions, the following will be relevant: clarity of the answer; language property (appropriateness from a legal, grammatical and logical point of view); ability to summarise, evaluate and make connections between the topics. (ILO 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, ILO 2.1, 2.3, ILO 3.1, ILO 4.1). M2 - Private Law (i) Final written examination: The examination grade is based on the final written examination consisting of 4 open questions with 3-4 sub-questions. (ii) At the request of students, a midterm exam on a first part of the course programme will be organised. The result of the midterm exam will be worth 20% of the total exam grade. Students who pass the midterm exam will take a final exam consisting of 3 questions with 3-4 sub-questions on the remaining part of the syllabus. The final exam grade will be worth 80% of the total grade. The assessment of the answers to the open questions will be based on: the clarity of the answer; the ownership of language (both from a technical legal point of view and from a grammatical and logical point of view); the ability to summarise, judge and evaluate and the ability to make connections between the topics studied. (ILO 1.1, 1.2, 1.4, 1.5, ILO 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, ILO 3.1, ILO 4.1).
