	Formative assessment Extra credit exercises - writing practice and exercises Learning outcomes (ILO)s assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 Summative assessment Written exam: Part A: grammar and vocabulary exercises within a clear specialised context including open cloze, multiple choice, error detection questions at the C1 level; Part B: academic report of 300-350 words based on subject-specific input. Learning outcomes (ILO)s assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4 Oral exam: speaking tasks based on discipline-specific input to demonstrate an advanced (C1) command of both spoken production and interaction. Learning outcomes (ILO)s assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4 Non-attending students should complete all the writing exercises done in class (available on OLE) and they should send them to the lecturer for formative assessment following the submission guidelines posted with each exercise.
Bewertungskriterien	Formative assessment The course will include Extra Credit Exercises (ECE), which will comprise up to 8 tests administered at regular intervals throughout the course. These tests will be scored for a maximum of 2 points per test, and this score will then be converted to a maximum of an extra 2 marks (out of the total 30 for the exam) that will be added to the final mark (written + oral marks). These tests will solely be for extra credit. If students are not present in class when an ECE is administered, they receive no points, but any total points they may have already accumulated from previous ECEs will be unaffected. Summative assessment Written exam (60% of final mark) – exercises and writing task (Part A and B are equally weighted. A pass is 60% overall) Part A: 4 grammar and vocabulary exercises within a clear specialised context: open cloze, multiple choice, error correction;

	Part B: 1 writing production task of 300 words based on subject-specific input Oral exam (40% of final mark) - speaking tasks based on discipline-specific input to demonstrate an advanced (C1) command of both spoken production and interaction. IMPORTANT • Students have to pass the written exam in order to present themselves at the oral exam. • Only once the oral has been judged positive (minimum 7.2/12) can the student pass the entire exam for the course.
