Spezifisches Bildungsziel und erwartete Lernergebnisse (zusätzliche Informationen)
Art der Prüfung	In order to be admitted to the examination, students must submit a dossier to the lecturers at least 10 days before the examination date. The dossier will be assessed and will contribute to the final mark. The dossier must contain the two mandatory assignments set during the course and a PowerPoint presentation. The contents of the dossier must refer to three different topics. The PowerPoint presentation concerns the formulation of an event (in the sporting, social, cultural or tourist field) of your own design. The inclusion of additional contributions in the dossier is optional. The final examination consists of a written test and an oral test. Students must pass both. The written test (duration: 60 minutes) assesses reading, vocabulary and textual comprehension skills through questions on the text and cloze tests. The use of monolingual and bilingual dictionaries is not permitted. The oral examination consists of a PowerPoint presentation and an interview on the contents of the dossier and the topics covered during the course (duration: 15 minutes). Non-attending students will take the same examination as attending students and are invited to contact the lecturer on Teams or by email, as well as logging into the platform regularly.
Bewertungskriterien	The final mark is calculated based on the following components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>30% - written test</li> <li>20% - dossier</li> <li>30% - oral test (interview)</li> <li>20% - oral test (PowerPoint presentation)</li> </ul> The dossier is assessed on the basis of its content and structure, as well as its formal correctness. The oral exam is assessed on the basis of the comprehensiveness and clarity of the answers, fluency, linguistic correctness and communication strategies.

Pflichtliteratur	Lecture notes and supplementary materials (articles/excerpts/videos) will be available via Teams.  Information about the textbook will be provided at the beginning of the course.
Weiterführende Literatur	Further resources will be announced during the lessons.
