Sintesi contenuti	For constructive cooperation between school and family that promotes inclusion, it is of fundamental importance to agree on jointly supported educational ideas and goals in terms of inclusion, personal development and the educational success of the young person. Firstly, this implies respectful communication and a diversity-sensitive approach in view of the diversity of family life situations. Secondly, this implies opportunities for co-determination and participation of students in the coordination processes.

	In the laboratory, theoretical inputs, discussions, practical exercises and case studies will be used to develop and reflect on appropriate approaches.
