Specific Educational Objectives and Learning Outcomes (additional info.)
Assessment	The exam consists of four separate components: 1. Art lecture: the exam consists of the assessment of a written test in the form of an analysis of a work of art and its didactic implementation, to be handed in before the date of the exam roll call in accordance with procedures that will be indicated by the lecturer; 2. Music lecture: the exam consists of a written test in the form of a questionnaire with open and closed answers on the day of the exam roll call; 3 and 4: Art and music workshops: the exam consists of the assessment of partial tests in accordance with procedures that will be indicated by the lecturers. No interview is scheduled. The overall grade will then be directly recorded on the cockpit platform. In the case of a failing grade for the entire module, any successfully passed partial examinations will be considered as already passed in the next attempt to take the entire module examination. It should be noted that, even in this case, a negative mark for the entire module will be counted towards the number of attempts available to take an examination. According to the

	Examinations Regulations, if a student fails an examination in three consecutive attempts, he/she may not register for the same examination in the three sessions following the last attempt (Art. 6, para. 4 of the current Regulations for Proficiency Examinations).
Evaluation Criteria	The module provides for the award of a single final mark. Specifically, for the written tests, the following are considered and assessed: accuracy in argumentation and information, logical structure, clarity of argument, lexical appropriateness, completeness, propositional skills and creativity and, for the parts in questionnaire form. Accuracy and completeness of answers. The evaluations of the individual workshops will take into account the participation and quality of productivity, participation and learning outcomes at workshop level.

Contents Summary	The aim of the laboratory is to deepen the topics of the lecture and put them into practice. Theoretical and practical aspects of art education and didactics are taught, particularly with regard to the phase between the transition to primary school and secondary school. This also involves art and art education as a central element of comprehensive aesthetic education.
Course Topics	The laboratory takes up topics from the lecture and expands on them in theoretical, methodological, didactic and practice-orientated terms, particularly in relation to the age range between the fifth and twelfth years and to primary school, e.g: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The image of the world in the child's world of images: Construction, reconstruction, coconstruction in the medium of pictorial creation at primary school age;</li> <li>- Art as a medium of play, representation, creation and communication: aesthetics and communication;</li> <li>- Formation of aesthetic judgement; visual semiotics;</li> <li>- Fundamentals of compositional design; materials and techniques;</li> <li>- Methods and techniques of image and media analysis;</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Material and technical design for children between the ages of 5 and 12;</li><li>- performative design in primary school; 'visual storytelling';</li><li>- Traditional and digital tools for the production of artistic artefacts; media didactics for primary schools;</li><li>- Planning and reflecting on art education teaching units.</li></ul>
Teaching Format	The laboratory offers space for project activities, has a workshop character and utilises creative and cooperative forms of learning as well as performative elements such as presentations.
