Argomenti dell'insegnamento	We try to understand what photography can do and where are the limits. In various examples created by the students we will learn how photography works today. What is it's relation to society, how was it 50 years ago - do we have to photograph an idea already thought? Can we find a new one? What kind of responsibilities do we have, why is it sometimes important to be funny, and sometimes not. The photography course tries to give as much answers as possible.
