Assessment	ATTENDING STUDENTS: The knowledge and the skills learned throughout the course will be assessed with: one group presentation during weeks 4 to 8 of the semester (30%); final written exam (70%). Moreover, active contribution to class discussion and activities is expected for each and every class. - The presentation will require students to work in groups to: read, understand, and critically analyse academic papers related to a topic discussed during the lectures; present their ideas about the impact of the topic on a case study analysed during the course and suggest strategies for the destination's competitiveness and/or sustainable development goals. Beside the presentation, students are required to upload or deliver per email a written report that presents the case study in detail (max 7 pages). Individual presentations can also be arranged. (ILO 2-3-4) Results of the group presentation and classroom work are valid for the academic year only in which these activities have taken place and results of these activities cannot be carried over beyond that time frame. - The written exam consists of open questions. The open questions will aim to evaluate the students' understanding of theoretical concepts and their ability to use these concepts for analysing and explaining current tourism issues. (ILO 1.1,1.4,1.5-4-5) The final written exam will last 90 minutes. NON-ATTENDING STUDENTS: The knowledge and the skills learned throughout the course will be assessed with: final written exam (100%). (ILO 1.1,1.4,1.5, 2, 3, 4, 5)

	The final written exam consists of open questions. The open questions will aim to evaluate the students' understanding of theoretical concepts and their ability to use these concepts for analysing and explaining current tourism issues. The final written exam will last 120 minutes.
Evaluation Criteria	EVALUATION CRITERIA: Students will gain marks by providing evidence of: • Understanding of concepts and demonstrating critical skills to identify the practical implications of theory into tourism context • Ability to apply theoretical concepts in different international tourism scenarios • Critical and analytical skills in understanding and addressing tourism issues • Innovative and forward thinking • Ability to explain, discuss and synthesise in their own words theoretical concepts. ATTENDING STUDENTS: Final Exam The exam will be divided into 2 parts: questions in part 1 will mainly require brief descriptions, definitions and list of factors, issues, etc. Questions in part 2 will require a discussion of a specific topic/issue. Presentation Points to the presentations will be granted upon the group's ability to explain, discuss, and synthesise in own words theoretical concepts reported in academic papers and to apply them to the case study. NON-ATTENDING STUDENTS: Final Exam The final written exam will be divided into 3 parts: questions in part 1 will mainly require brief descriptions, definitions and list of factors, issues, etc. Questions in part 2 will require a discussion of a specific topic/issue. In part 3, students will be required to discuss and synthesis in own words theoretical concepts reported in academic papers (from course readings) and to apply them to a topic and/or case.
