|  | educational linguistics and contrastive linguistics, with particular reference to Italian L2 in the context of interaction with German and Ladin. Ability to apply knowledge and understanding At the end of the course, students are able to reflect on the linguistic development in Italian L2 of infants and children in pre-school and primary school, they are able to evaluate the resources available for language education in Italian L2 in pre-school and primary school and they are able to independently produce materials for language education in Italian L2 in primary school. They can also reflect contrastively on Italian, German and Ladin. Transversal skills Autonomy of judgement At the end of the module, students have attained critical and interpretative skills that enable them to make observations and formulate autonomous judgments on children's language learning in Italian L2 and on the teaching of Italian L2 in pre-school and primary school, with particular reference to the context of interaction with German and Ladin. Communicative skills At the end of the module, the students acquired specific communicative skills, in particular formal accuracy of exposition and selection of terms, argumentative ability and the ability to summarise in Italian. The insistence on linguistic topics stimulates greater control of the linguistic resources available, including for L2 teaching. The workshop activities, in plenum and in small groups, contribute to developing specific communicative skills such as argumentative capacity, formal accuracy and the ability to synthesise. Learning skills At the end of the module, the students have acquired specific knowledge and reflective skills that enable them to update and deepen their study of the processes of acquisition and teaching of Italian L2 autonomously, as well as to update themselves critically on the proposals of language education for Italian L2, with particular reference to speakers of German or Ladin L1. Furthermore, the didactic methodologies experimented during the workshops develop the capacity for linguistic reflection and didactic application spendable in the future profession of L2 teachers. |

| Inhaltsangabe                          | The workshop conveys the basics of Ladin language and culture in the Dolomite area. It also offers an introduction to the Ladin school system and the integrated language didactics practised there. The proposed synthesis will deal with elements of the linguistic history of Ladin and its current sociolinguistic status (knowledge of the Ladin language, understood as active linguistic competence, will not be the subject of the course), and will also offer the main basics on the history and culture of the Ladins. The Ladin school system will be presented in more detail, with a particular focus on integrated language teaching and the teaching materials used to carry it out. |
