Inhaltsangabe	M1 - Module M1 "Economic Policy and Sustainable Development" explores the role of public policy in achieving sustainable development goals (SDGs) through economic interventions. Students will gain knowledge of the tools used in sustainable policy formulation. The course aims to equip students with the analytical skills needed to assess and design effective public policies for sustainable economic development. M2 - Module M2 "Public Management and Innovation" provides a structured introduction to the principles, functions, and contemporary challenges of management in the public sector, with a particular emphasis on innovation as a means of enhancing administrative capacity, responsiveness, and societal impact. Special attention is given to the distinctive institutional and political context in which public management operates, including its legal frameworks, accountability mechanisms, and value-driven objectives. Innovation is examined both as a managerial practice and as a policy imperative, particularly in relation to digital transformation, citizen engagement, and sustainable development. Core themes may include: models of public governance, strategic management in the public sector, organizational learning and change, innovation processes, sustainability-oriented public services, and collaborative approaches involving multiple stakeholders.

Spezifisches Bildungsziel und erwartete Lernergebnisse (zusätzliche Informationen)
Art der Prüfung	M1: Written and project work: written exam with review questions and project report done in groups. For Attending Students: • Team Project Report and Presentation (30%): Students will collaborate on a comprehensive project report that is relevant to the course's subject matter. This report will be accompanied by a presentation, where each team will articulate their findings and recommendations (ILOs 1-5). • Written Exam (70%): The exam will consist of review questions designed to test students' understanding of the course material. Questions will range from theoretical knowledge to application-based scenarios that require critical thinking and synthesis of learned concepts (ILOs 1-5). For Non-Attending Students: • Written Exam (100%): Non-attending students will take a more extensive written exam (ILOs 1-5). M2: • Attending students: 40% of the final grade will be dedicated to group project work and final presentation. Students will form groups to examine assigned case studies, using specific questions to guide their analysis. They must apply theoretical concepts from lectures to their discussion. During each session, selected groups will present their findings, while non-presenting groups are expected to actively engage by commenting on the presentations and sharing their perspectives.

	At the conclusion of the course, each group will give a brief presentation reflecting on the lessons learned and synthesizing all cases discussed during the class (ILO3, ILO4). 20% of the final grade will be dedicated to individual class activities; students will be given activities to submit at the end of each session (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO5). 40% of the final grade will be dedicated to the written exam: It consists of two review questions based on the theoretical content of the course and 10 multiple-choice questions (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3). • Not-attending students: Final written exam (100%). Students who choose not to participate in the coursework are graded on a longer written exam that includes review and multiple-choice questions (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4, ILO5).
Bewertungskriterien	M1: Evaluation criteria relevant for both assessments: clarity of answers, mastery of specific terminology, ability to summarize, evaluate, and establish relationships between topics, ability to apply concepts to real-world examples. • Team Project Report: o Depth and accuracy of content o Integration and application of course concepts to the project topic o Originality and creativity in problem-solving and analysis o Clarity, organization, and professionalism of the written report • Team Presentation: o Effectiveness of communication and ability to engage the audience o Visual and analytical clarity of presentation materials o Responsiveness to questions and ability to discuss the project in depth • Written Exam: o Comprehension of course material and key concepts o Ability to apply theoretical knowledge to practical scenarios o Critical thinking and analytical skills in responding to review questions o Quality of written communication, including structure and
