Specific Educational Objectives and Learning Outcomes (additional info.)
Assessment	A final exam, written (ILO 1, ILO 2.1), as well as a mandatory writing assignment (ILOs 2.3-2.6) and presentation (ILOs 2.2, 3, 4, 5). Non-attendees are encouraged to do the presentation. For attending students, the course project is done in groups of 2 students and it includes a written project report (about 10 pages)

	and short 10-minute presentation of the main ideas developed. Non-attending students can do a course project in groups of 2 students if they prefer but must sign up when this is offered, i.e. agree on a topic with the instructors at least 2 months before the exam that they wish to take. Non-attending students can also do a written 10-page project on their own instead. During the exams neither textbooks, nor other teaching materials, nor any electronic devices are allowed in the examination room. Dictionaries without notes and simple calculators are permitted.
Evaluation Criteria	The final grade will be a weighted average of the writing assignment (25%), presentation (5%), final exam (70%). For non-attending students who choose not to do the presentation, the writing assignment will count for 30% of the final grade. The textbook, "Public Economics" by Jonathan Gruber, additional reading materials made available to the class and the in-class slides of the instructors will form the basis for the material covered in the exams and will be made available to the students online. Relevant for assessing the written exam is the clarity of answers, mastery of the teaching language, and the ability to summarize, evaluate, and establish relationships between topics and to solve formal problems. Relevant for assessing the course project is the ability to work on a specified topic, creativity, critical thinking, ability to structure and summarize ideas in your own words, teamwork and an effective presentation.
