Inhaltsangabe	The course is part of the theory and didactics of the hundred languages and pedagogy inspired by the figure of Loris Malaguzzi. It proposes an approach to the experience of the infant-toddler centres and preschools of Reggio Emilia.

Themen der Lehrveranstaltung	The educational function of the hundred languages is based on the image of a child as a bearer of strong developmental potential and a subject of rights, who learns and grows in relationship with others. In particular, the course will approach - The hundred languages model: history and development. - The image and work of the child with the help of the hundred languages. - Seeing, reading and interpreting with the hundred languages: visions of children's art. Sounds tell. - Documenting the didactics of the hundred languages: making learning in the hundred languages 'tangible'; - Learning with others and with parents: the child as competent researcher; the parent/adult/teacher as facilitator; - Children, spaces, relationships. - Children learning individually and in groups.
