Sintesi contenuti	The course is designed to acquire specific language skills at an advanced level (beyond B2). The course focuses on some of the various styles of language used in the academic and professional fields of economics and politics, and aims to improve students' receptive, but above all productive skills.
Argomenti dell'insegnamento	• General introduction to course • Grammar review at C1 level: complex sentences; lexicogrammar • Introduction to and analysis of effective reading, writing and speaking skills at the C1 level • Audience and effects on language register and style • Writing skills and specialised lexis: paragraphs, academic emails, reports, generalisation, exemplification, caution, classification, interpretation of data (trends) • Presentations: coherence, discourse features, analysis, exemplification, description, supporting arguments.

Parole chiave	Specialised English, reading, writing, speaking, lexicogrammar
Prerequisiti	Although not a formal requirement, it is strongly recommended that students have at least a CEFR B2 level in English.
Insegnamenti propedeutici	Although not a formal requirement, it is strongly recommended that students have at least a CEFR B2 level.
Modalità di insegnamento	Teaching format is based on the seminar format which envisages teacher and student co-operation and participation in the classroom through individual, pair and group work. Exercise hours will enable students to develop the language and skills studied in the lectures through greater opportunities for focussed practice. Any student who has specific learning needs that they feel may have an impact on their ability to benefit fully from this course will be offered individual support on request.
Obbligo di frequenza	Attendance As this is a language course, attendance is strongly encouraged and incentivised but is not compulsory. Attendance of this advanced course and the exercise hours is extremely important so as to be fully prepared for the final exam.

Modalità di esame	Assessment is the same for both attending and non-attending students. Formative assessment Extra credit exercises - writing practice and exercises

	Learning outcomes (ILO)s assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 Summative assessment Written exam: Part A: grammar and vocabulary exercises within a clear specialised context including open cloze, multiple choice, error detection questions at the C1 level; Part B: academic report of 300-350 words based on subject-specific input. Learning outcomes (ILO)s assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4 Oral exam: speaking tasks based on discipline-specific input to demonstrate an advanced (C1) command of both spoken production and interaction. Learning outcomes (ILO)s assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4 Non-attending students should complete all the writing exercises done in class (available on OLE) and they should send them to the lecturer for formative assessment following the submission guidelines posted with each exercise.
Criteri di valutazione	Formative assessment The course will include Extra Credit Exercises (ECE), which will comprise up to 8 tests administered at regular intervals throughout the course. These tests will be scored for a maximum of 2 points per test, and this score will then be converted to a maximum of an extra 2 marks (out of the total 30 for the exam) that will be added to the final mark (written + oral marks). These tests will solely be for extra credit. If students are not present in class when an ECE is administered, they receive no points, but any total points they may have already accumulated from previous ECEs will be unaffected. Summative assessment Written exam (60% of final mark) – exercises and writing task (Part A and B are equally weighted. A pass is 60% overall) Part A: 4 grammar and vocabulary exercises within a clear specialised context: open cloze, multiple choice, error correction; Part B: 1 writing production task of 300 words based on subject-specific input

	Oral exam (40% of final mark) - speaking tasks based on discipline-specific input to demonstrate an advanced (C1) command of both spoken production and interaction. IMPORTANT • Students have to pass the written exam in order to be admitted to the oral exam. • Only once the oral has been judged positive (minimum 7.2/12) can the student pass the entire exam for the course.
