Contents Summary	The integrated theoretical module provides fundamental overview about scientific methods of contemporary semiology and communication theory.
Course Topics	We witness a strong change in the function of city libraries: from storage of knowledge and study center to social meeting place. The course researches this change and analyzes impressive examples in different countries. The new library center planned for Bolzano will be part of these discussions: What will be its social function? Who is going to attend it? What will be the narration making the new place attractive? The course will be constituted as a research group – the 'liblab'. A first research phase, including specialists from all over Europe, will supply basic competences. In a second phase the lab will research the situation at Bolzano, in dialogue with its library experts and with its citizens. Results will be summarized in small publications, charts, photos and/or videos. Finally the public will be invited to the liblab to learn about the new developments and discuss results.
