Specific Educational Objectives and Learning Outcomes	An upper-intermediate English-language course based on the B2/B2+ level of the CEFR. This specifically designed course aims to develop some of the language used in the food and wine industry through use of general and specific texts, both written and spoken. The course aims to facilitate comprehension and participation in the other activities offered in English by the Faculty with emphasis on improving both receptive and productive skills. Specific educational objectives include the following: • to improve written skills through practice of writing emails, paragraphs, reports and other subject-specific texts; • to improve spoken interaction and production through the practice and production of presentations regarding food, wine and agriculture-related topics; • to improve receptive skills through the exposure to and analysis of various types of written and spoken discourse; • to develop grammatical and lexical range and accuracy so that communication has a degree of fluency.

Specific Educational Objectives and Learning Outcomes (additional info.)	Intended learning outcomes (ILO): 1. Knowledge and understanding: Knowledge of grammatical structures and subject-specific academic and professional lexis at the B2/B2+ level, understanding of authentic (general and subject-specific) short spoken and written texts including a limited number of specialised texts and other general texts, as well as different registers and styles. 2. Applying knowledge and understanding: Producing emails, paragraphs and descriptions about specific food and wine-related but also general topics providing opinions and accounting for the views presented. Presenting clear descriptions of processes involved in the food and wine industry, developing points and formulating opinions in short written and oral texts. 3. Making judgments: Integrating knowledge and understanding acquired in the course with knowledge and understanding from other courses to achieve academic and professional purposes especially within the specific fields covered by the degree programme. 4. Communication skills: Communicating (in both speaking and writing) with a degree of fluency. Ability to adapt language style to show awareness of both the intended purposes and audience. 5. Learning skills: Ability to pursue autonomous learning both during the course and subsequently based on the input provided in the classes and lectures and the feedback received.
