Unterrichtsform	This course will be taught through lectures and class-discussions. The theoretical background of organization and management of sport and leisure facilities will be presented in lectures. The practical application of this theoretical background will then be explored through class discussions, which will be conducted within the framework of short assigned case studies and additional, related reading assignments. In order to contribute actively and effectively to class discussions, students are responsible for completing cases studies and other reading assignments prior to class and for creatively applying the principles learned through lectures and assignments.  One or two short outside campus activities are foreseen. Details will be announced by the lecturer during the course.
