

CURRICULUM VITAE

Alessandro Andriolo

Studies:

- 1994 Registered as professional forestry technician (it. Dottore forestale) with reg. nr.176 thru enabling exam by the university of Padova
- 1992 Master degree in forestry science at the university of Padova; thesis about “Floods and flood defence in South Tyrol”, supervisor Prof. Giuseppe Benini.
- 1984 Classical degree (diploma di maturità classica) at the “Liceo Classico G. Carducci” of Bolzano

Foreign languages:

German: “A”- certificate of Autonomous Province South Tyrol (italian mother tongue)

English: B2 – level at the Oxford Placement Test

ICT skills

Microsoft environment, basic skills in Autocad. Enhanced skills in GIS (ESRI ARC/INFO, ArcView and QGis), macro programming in AML and Avenue. Known programming languages: Fortran, C, Visual Basic (basic functions), SQL.

Actually:

Employed since 01/04/1996 at the Autonomous Province of Bozen as professional forester. Core business: forest planning and forest management. Over 50 forest plans for forest properties over the extension threshold of 100 ha compiled.

Since 2001 registered as tester of forest and hydraulic infrastructures. Over 100 testing reports compiled.

In the academic years 2008-2009, 2009-2010 and from 2011 to 2021 worked as teaching assistant of Prof. Giustino Tonon, bachelor in agricultural science and agricultural technology, teaching post: Silviculture.

This activity continued 2021-22 to 2022-23 with Prof. Giorgio Alberti and since academic year 2023-24 with Prof. Roberto Tognetti.

Registered as expert in silviculture at the University of Bolzano.

Updated to: 07/01/2026